

Qualified Small Employer Health Reimbursement Arrangement (QSEHRA) Worksheet

Small employers that don't offer group health coverage to their employees can help employees pay for medical expenses through a QSEHRA.

If your employer provides you a QSEHRA, read the notice you get from them carefully for its terms, including your QSEHRA dollar amount. You'll need to have qualifying health coverage to use your QSEHRA, and you can use the QSEHRA to help lower your household's health care costs for qualifying health coverage. Use this worksheet to determine if the QSEHRA is or isn't considered affordable. If it's affordable for you, even if you haven't accepted the offer, you can't get a premium tax credit to lower the cost of a plan purchased through Nevada Health Link (NVHL). If it's not affordable for you, you must reduce the amount of your advanced premium tax credit (APTC) by the QSEHRA amount.

STEP 1: Gather the information you need.

- Your QSEHRA notice. You should've gotten this from your employer. If you didn't, check with them.
- The adjusted gross income amount from your most recent federal income tax return. You'll need this to determine your household income for the year you're provided the QSEHRA. You'll need your household income for Step 3.
- A calculator. Or, use the calculator function on your computer or mobile device.
- Access to Enroll.NevadaHealthLink.com.

STEP 2: Enter your QSEHRA amount.

a. Enter the maximum yearly, self-only amount available to you through the QSEHRA. If you didn't get the full-year amount provided in the notice—like if you gained employment during the QSEHRA's plan year—enter the self-only amount shown in the QSEHRA notice you got from your employer.	2a $

Visit Enroll.NevadaHealthLink.com and select the Start Shopping button. 2. Enter your ZIP code. 3. When asked who’s in your household, enter information (including birthdate) just for you. 4. c. Enter the amount from 3c.	4c $
d. Is the 4b amount more than the 4c amount? Select Yes or No.	4d Yes No

STEP 5: Check affordability.

- If 4d is Yes: Your QSEHRA isn’t considered affordable. This means you may be eligible for a premium tax credit to lower the cost of coverage through NVHL for you and your household members. You can submit an application with financial help. If you are eligible for an advanced premium tax credit (APTC), you should reduce the amount of the APTC you’ll apply to your monthly premiums by your monthly QSEHRA amount. If you have already submitted an application without financial help, or you are unsure, contact NVHL at 1-800-547-2927 TTY 771 to report the offer of an unaffordable QSEHRA. This will allow you to submit a new application with financial help.
- If 4d is No: Your QSEHRA is considered affordable. This means you’re not eligible for a premium tax credit to lower the cost of coverage through NVHL for you and your household members (if the QSEHRA is provided to them). You’ll use your employer’s QSEHRA to help pay your premiums and enroll in a plan. If you’re starting your NVHL application, you should select the application without financial help. If you have already submitted an application with financial help, or you are unsure, contact NVHL at 1-800-547-2927 TTY 771 to report your offer of an affordable QSEHRA, or that you are covered by a QSEHRA.
